"2. Petitioner was granted recognition by Western Regional Committee ["WRC"] of the National Council for Teacher Education ["NCTE"] for its B.Ed. course on 23/30th October, 2008. A revised recognition order was issued on 31st May, 2015, pursuant to notification issued under the NCTE Regulations, 2014. However, WRC withdrew Petitioner's recognition by an order dated 10th October, 2019. Petitioner then approached this Court against the withdrawal order by way of W.P.(C) 1445/2020. By an order dated 19th February, 2020, the Court set-aside the withdrawal order and remanded the matter to WRC for a fresh decision on Petitioner's case and since then, the matter remains pending with WRC

3. In these circumstances, the withdrawal order having been set-aside by this Court, there is no impediment in Petitioner's participation in counselling or admitting students, until and unless a fresh withdrawal order is issued by the WRC.

4. Consequently, WRC is directed to restore Petitioner's status as a recognised institution for the academic session 2022-23 and for subsequent sessions, until a fresh recognition order is passed. WRC will issue an order restoring the recognition order, within one week from today, and also incorporate the name of the Petitioner on its website as a 'recognised' institution. Further, NCTE is directed to inform Petitioner's affiliating university and the concerned department of the State Government within the timelines.

5. The present petition along with the pending application, stands disposed of in the above terms."
